

CALLING ALL DANCE ARTISTS & INSTRUCTORS

DANCE FOR WORLD COMMUNITY™

is now accepting applications from Performance Dance Artists and Instructors of All Dance Forms for participation in the 16th Annual DWC Festival

Saturday, June 6, 2026 in Harvard Square, Cambridge

Be a part of Greater Boston's largest dance event for a fun-filled day of celebration, creativity and advocacy.

The indoor/outdoor Festival takes place on Massachusetts Avenue in Harvard Square between Bow Street & Putnam Avenue. It showcases approximately 60 performances on five stages and offers introductory-level dance classes in all forms of dance, all free to the community and visiting guests. New this year, alternative plans to move performances indoors will be made the case of rain.

The Festival showcases the richness and diversity of our local dance community and is made possible with the concerted support of local businesses, city government, social service nonprofits and other collaborating arts and cultural agencies. In keeping with DWC's mission, the Festival will also serve to raise awareness about important social and environmental issues, foster greater civic participation and strengthen community cohesion.
